Westly Comments on Education Funding Announcement

SACRAMENTO – State Controller Steve Westly issue the following statement on today's education funding announcement:

“Every Californian should be pleased that the Governor has money to finally begin paying what he owes our schools.

“It's a shame it took a lawsuit to force the Governor to follow the law, especially on something as important as funding for our schools.

“Our teachers and students have been hurt by these missing billions for too long.”
